About the Book

In the realm of Australian literature, Bronwyn Bancroft emerges as a master storyteller, weaving tales that ignite imaginations and captivate readers of all ages. Her latest creation, "Is For Echidna," is a literary masterpiece that invites us on an enchanting alphabet adventure through the vibrant tapestry of the Australian wilderness.

From the enigmatic echidna to the soaring wedge-tailed eagle, Bancroft's lyrical prose paints a vivid portrait of the unique flora and fauna that inhabit this extraordinary continent. Each page is adorned with stunning illustrations by award-winning artist, Cate James, bringing the alphabet to life in a symphony of vibrant colors and captivating details.

A Journey Through the Australian Alphabet

As we embark on this extraordinary journey, Bancroft introduces us to a cast of unforgettable characters. E is for Emu, its long, elegant legs striding across the shimmering desert sands. F is for Frill-necked Lizard, its vibrant frill a kaleidoscope of shimmering hues. And G is for Galah, its cheerful call echoing through the sunlit canopy of the gum trees.

With each letter of the alphabet, Bancroft unveils a new facet of Australia's rich biodiversity. From the majestic kangaroo to the tiny sugar glider, from the towering gum trees to the shimmering waters of the Great Barrier Reef, "Is For Echidna" offers a comprehensive glimpse into the wonders of this captivating land.
