Written by award-winning author Sharon Flake, "Unstoppable Octobia May" is a moving and empowering tale that celebrates the transformative power of self-belief and the importance of standing up for what is right.

A Story of Triumph Amidst Adversity

Octobia May, a bright and spirited 11-year-old girl, faces numerous challenges in her life. From poverty and discrimination to a dysfunctional family, her path is fraught with obstacles.

But Octobia refuses to be defined by her circumstances. With an indomitable spirit, she draws strength from her love of reading and the unwavering support of a few special people in her life.

The Power of Education and Friendship

Octobia finds solace and empowerment in the world of books. Through her passion for reading, she discovers the transformative power of education. It becomes her sanctuary, a place where she can escape her troubles and dream of a better future.

Equally important is Octobia's friendship with Maybelline, a wise and caring older woman who becomes her mentor and confidante. Maybelline teaches Octobia the importance of perseverance, empathy, and the power of speaking her truth.

A Journey of Healing and Forgiveness

As Octobia navigates the challenges of her life, she learns the importance of confronting her own demons and finding healing within herself. Through her journey, she discovers the power of forgiveness and the transformative nature of love.

Octobia's story is not just a tale of overcoming adversity but also a testament to the resilience and strength of the human spirit. It is a story that reminds us that even in the darkest of times, hope can prevail.

A Literary Masterpiece for All Ages
