IMPERIALISM

DEFINITION

Imperialism refers to the policy or practice by which a country increases its power by gaining control or influence over other areas of the world, often through colonization, military force, or economic dominance. It is driven by the desire for territorial expansion, access to resources, and the spread of cultural or ideological beliefs.

EXAMPLES

- The British Empire: At its height, Britain controlled vast territories across the world, ranging from India to the Caribbean.
- The Scramble for Africa: In the early 20th century, European powers colonized most of Africa, dividing the continent among themselves, with little regard for local political boundaries.
